

Malcolm Jeffreys Memorial Leadership Award at Toronto Metropolitan University (formerly Ryerson University)

Established by Community Living Windsor

Scholarship amount: $1000.00

This will be awarded to a student who demonstrates excellence and leadership promise.

- Has achieved high academic standing;
- Exhibits potential leadership qualities;
- Demonstrates by example a commitment to improving the quality of life for disabled Canadians.

Criteria for this award include:

- Completion of three (3) DST courses, DST 501 and two (2) additional DST courses;
- High academic performance;
- Ability to advance the understanding of equality and inclusion;
- Demonstrated commitment to improving life for other students;
- Contributing to the reputation of the school.

The following are to be provided:

1. Name of person being nominated (including address, phone and email).
2. Nomination – paragraph stating reasons.
3. Reference letter of support from faculty member or employer.
4. Students may nominate themselves or be nominated by another student or faculty member.

The selection will be made by an awards committee including faculty and representation from the School of Disability.

All materials must be submitted through the AwardSpring system through the university.

For any enquiries please contact:

Paris Master-McRae, Program Coordinator

School of Disability Studies

Toronto Metropolitan University (formerly Ryerson University)

Email: m2paris@torontomu.ca Phone: 416-979-5000 ext. 7037